Starting a New Year - Below are a few ideas and suggestions gathered by our NHPS community to share within your school, for beginning of the year activities, to promote SEL as part of your school's Culture and Climate.

- Welcoming Town Meetings by grade level
- Get to know you team building for students and staff
- Daily SEL focus during announcements
- First week building of relationships through fun activities
- Building a space in weekly/monthly newsletters to include SEL tips/information
- Creating classroom and building welcoming routines
- Planning an end of the day optimistic closure for all
- Determining a point in the day when all staff and students can join in a moment of refocus
- Creating spaces and rooms for refocusing
- Elevating student voice
- Developing class agreements/expectations with student input
- Highlighting summer successes

Explicit Instruction

Pacing Guides - More information and training will take place throughout the year. This information is intended to assist you with planning out your school-based/classroom Explicit SEL lessons. Speak with your school's trained SEL Ambassador(s) for more information.
