1st Exam Block is the first period on A, B, C, and D days = the 1st block on a regular school day

For Example on Regular A Day, Period 1 takes place in the first block of time (7:30-8:26)

2nd Exam Block is the lunch block period on A, B,C and D days = 4th Block on a regular school day

For Example on Regular A Day, Period 5 takes place in the fourth Block of time which is the lunch Block. (10:30-11:00)

All Students will be allowed to make up exams after 11:00 Dismissal Each Day. Exams are a regular work day

Dismissal on Mid-Term Exams would be 11:00 AM

2 Hour Delay Schedule

Time
9:30-9:50	Homeroom
9:50-11:05	Exam 1
11:10-12:40	Block 6 Class
11:15-11:40	Lunch Wave 1
11:45-12:10	Lunch Wave 2
12:15-12:40	Lunch Wave 3
12:45-2:00	Exam 2

If we have a 2 hour delay we have to provide lunch to students and dismissal is at 2:00

So after Exam 1 we will go to the last block class on that day during lunch

Ex: On A day we will go to our Block 6 class (Period 7) from 11:10-12:40

On B day Block 6 would be (period 8), On C Day Block 6 would be (period 5)

and on D Day Block 6 would be (period 6)
The reason I have to use another block during lunch is because Exam 2 is always the class that occurs during lunch block
