

Students

Freedom of Speech/Expression

Right to Assemble

Students have the right to assemble provided that school authorities regulate the times and locations of speeches and assemblies, and require at least a week's notice to avoid scheduling conflicts and insure proper protection of the school community. The gathering must be peaceful and nondisruptive to the educational process.

Freedom of Speech//Expression

It shall be the policy of the school district to recognize and protect the rights of student expression. It will maintain a balance of these rights with the interests of an orderly and efficient educational process and of a school environment suitable for the healthy growth and development of all students. This policy will not be implemented on behalf of any other interests.

The school district shall assume no responsibility for the contents of any written material produced, posted, circulated or otherwise distributed, or of student conduct, taken in accordance with this policy, insofar as such matter or conduct may relate to any interests other than those of an orderly and efficient educational process and proper school environments.

In order to protect the educational process and school environment, printed material produced or distributed within the confines of school district property shall meet the following criteria:

1. Material shall be noncommercial.
2. Material shall not contain libelous or obscene language.
